GLOBAL NETWORK

Background

Model United Nations is a simulation of a United Nations Conference attended by young leaders, referred to as Delegates, who are assigned a country to represent in one of the United Nations' numerous committees with pre-set topics to debate. It is also a platform where young leaders from all over the world gather in one place with a similar aim, that is to improve their skills in leadership, negotiation, and diplomacy. All those skills can be obtained by joining and participating in the Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV.

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV is a Model United Nations carrying the theme of Preserving Peace in A Dynamic Security Dimensions. Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV aims to facilitate young leaders from different places to broaden their networks and to provide a platform to share their perspectives, particularly on peace and security that will be discussed in each council.

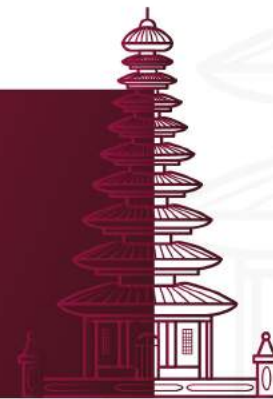

The delegates will have a discussion on the mentioned issue for each goal and will be guided directly by the chair and co-chair. Therefore, Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV will be an excellent choice for young leaders who wish to enhance and develop their capabilities in communication and diplomacy skills.

The Purpose of The Event

- 01 To facilitate young leaders who haven't any experiences in MUN and want to explore MUN.
- 02 To facilitate young leaders from all over the world to broaden their network.
- 03 To improve young leaders' perspective on the world in order to form critically thinking generations.
- 04 To provide a platform for young leaders to improve their soft-skills in writing, public speaking, and negotiation.
- 05 To allocate the opportunity of experiencing the atmosphere of the United Nations Conference.

Place and Date

Delegates will experience multiculturalism through diplomatic dinner where they may expand their network by meeting other delegates from various countries. Awarding An awarding ceremony will be presented to appreciate the participants' hard work and enthusiasm during the committee session.

06 Cultural Night

There will be a set of cultural performances during the closing ceremony where the delegates will perform on stage to exhibit the culture of their nations.

Councils Overview

Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV will provide 4 councils with an interesting topic in each council that will be discussed at the conference. Each delegate may choose one council to attend. Another council will reveal after the existing council has been full.

World Health Organization (WHO)

Topic: Addressing Tobacco Free Initiative as a global action plan.

Tobacco is one of the main factors of death caused by non-communicable diseases such as Tuberculosis, Stroke and Lung Cancer. The number of people who died of it keeps escalating every year. The latest data show that an estimated 100 million people from any ages were killed by tobacco used during the 20th century. As part of continuing efforts to improve the health and well-being of people, the World Health Organization member states in Asia World Model United Nations (AWMUN) IV will be addressing the Tobacco-Free Initiatives as a global action plan to work together in order to decrease the use of Tobacco in people's daily life.

United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)

Topic: Protection of Displaced Women and Children in Conflict Situation.

One of the mandates of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees is to protect women and children as the most vulnerable group during the conflict situation. Put women and children first means that they have to be saved first in a life-threatening situation. Protection towards women and children in conflict situations means that we have to protect them from violence, war, and ensure that we protect their future. The impact of armed conflict on children, especially infants and young children, cannot be considered in isolation from women. In the committee session of AWMUN IV, the delegates will discuss the protection of displaced women and children in conflict situations. Moreover, women are the primary child caregivers, when they are affected by war, so are children.

Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO)

Topic : Ending World Hunger Through Development of Genetically Modified Organism (GMO)

Food scarcity is one of the world's big homework. The global warming and change of land function has worsened the condition from the ideal. In this invention era, we are keen to develop a genetically modified organism (GMO). GMO is any organism whose genetic material has been altered using genetic engineering techniques. Using GMO is believed could contribute to food production by increasing the quality and higher food availability. Yet, the safe and effective application of GMO to solve the problems of hunger in the third-world, will require reasonable engagement and coordination from FAO member states. It is expected that in AWMUN IV, the FAO could provide great ideas to boost the discussion over the development of GMO.

United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)

Binding Multilateral Cooperation to Integrated Services for Children with Disability UNICEF has committed to build a more inclusive society for children with disability. It is believed, through integrated services supported by well-prepared specialists in education, children with disability may enjoy daily common experiences essential to the development of a keen awareness of the realities of the world around them. Currently, the implementation of the action is not yet final as it needs the full commitment from UNICEF member states to adhere the multi-cultural cooperation for having an integrated services for children with disability.
