Personal Summa

Trained at Barry John Acting Studio and coached by acclaimed casting director Atul Mongia, Pradeep Yadav is on his way to [entertainingly] inspire humankind through his craft. He has a knack for conversation and drama. He keeps his creative juices flowing through writing, traveling and watching TV. Besides being strong-willed to learn and grow, he's the biggest fan of FRIENDS (and has little too much love for French-fries). His emotional fearlessness, sincerity and faith in the universe (energy) keep his spine inspired.
